1. The following buildings in Moedling are occupied by Soviet troops. This is not a complete list. The Academy block consists of the following buildings:
 - a. a building to the north of the Academy, marked on town maps as Gendarmeriekaserne.
 - b. the Sparkasse building on the corner of Elisabethstrasse and Schranneplatz, bearing the Cyrillic inscription Дом Офицеров Красной Армии used as an army officers' club.
 - c. the building Neusiedlerstrasse 20 which was decorated with red flags; a number of soldiers were seen in the large garden behind this house.
 - d. several houses in Grutschgasse; a number of Russian dependents and only a few Austrians were seen there. The houses are probably officers' quarters.
2. The following army personnel were seen:

One lieutenant colonel with black service colors; three lieutenant colonels with bordeaux-red service colors; one lieutenant colonel with tank insignia; one sergeant with tank insignia; a number of infantry enlisted women wearing new uniforms; one enlisted woman wearing medical service insignia.
3. Intensive motor traffic was observed on Hauptstrasse and Neusiedlerstrasse to and from the Academy area; [REDACTED]
